President's Message

Great Show! Good traffic! New Information and Vendors! And Lots of leads! This is what my keen ears heard during the 32nd Annual Exhibitors show held at the Radisson Hotel on March 21st. Kudos to Larry Saylor and Charlie Beauduy for everything coming off seamlessly and smooth. Also, many thanks to the vendors who support this show. Without your support and time, our region architects and specifiers would have even a harder time keeping up with the ever-changing information in the new 50 Division format!

The key CSI training event of our region is coming up with the Leadership Orientation Seminar (LOS) in Gettysburg on April 21-22, 2007. This Friday-thru-Saturday Conference has training and leadership events just for our CSI region and, it's FREE... Yes, the chapter pays for you to go. RSVP or e-mail Charlie Beauduy (cbeauduy@gfnet.com) if you would like to go. Come down to Gettysburg on Friday night, have dinner, and meet the officers. There will also be Golf, Sporting Clays, and Battlefield tours. This venue will be held at the Wyndham Hotel and is a brand new facility. I hope to see you there, and I would encourage any member, young or old, to aspire to leadership in our chapter.

Our April 10th dinner meeting will be on EPS insulation in sustainable construction. This meeting will be a green building topic meeting. This meeting will give you the chance to earn 1 AIA CEU. Come out! You can just send Maria Weber an e-mail and you are in. (maria_weber@mcgraw-hill.com).

The National CSI Show will be held in Baltimore on June 19-22, 2007, which is a special treat since the show moves around the country every year. (www.csishow.com). The event is only about 75 minutes away by car. I can tell you that my employer, YKK AP, will be there with a NEW LARGE BOOTH and NEW PRODUCTS!!!! So come see us.
